

Please do not dilute New Jersey's Do Not Call legislation. The calls used to be a form of harrassment. Telemarketers were rude and aggressive as they felt entitled to make their pitches, and I'm upset to think that they might have the right to intrude on my privacy like they used to before New Jersey instituted the current law.